

AAAIM was founded in 2006 and its core mission is to support and promote Asian American investment managers in the following ways:

- 1) Access to capital providers;
 - 2) Professional development;
 - 3) Advocacy; and
 - 4) Providing a platform for networking and conducting business.
-

Members of AAAIM support the organization with their energy, ideas and annual dues. In return AAAIM offers the following benefits to active members:

Capital introductions & investor education

AAAIM helps members identify the most relevant sources of capital within its network and creates the opportunities for members to meet the LPs

Job search and professional networking

- AAAIM has relationships into LP organizations, GP organizations, and the White House, which reach out to AAAIM for talent searches
- By participating at AAAIM events, members broaden their networks for future job searches

Service provider network

- AAAIM can help members identify services, such as legal counsel, which are essential to emerging funds

Discounts & preferential access

- Members receive significant discounts to all AAAIM events. AAAIM holds 1 national annual event and at least 3 regional events throughout the U.S. in a year. Total member discounts range from $300 - $500
- Members receive a $100 discount for annual subscriptions to Emerging Manager Monthly
- Members are offered preferential registration to partner events

Training & mentoring

AAAIM is in the process of forging partnerships for members to access professional training at discounted rates

For more information on AAAIM benefits, please email info@aaaim.org

Individual membership to AAAIM is $500/year. For corporate membership, please email info@aaaim.org